

Patronage FAV

On 20 February 2018 the ROBOTS project had the patronage of FAV (Fondazione Aldini Valeriani). This foundation is in Bologna (Via Bassanelli Sario, 11),
Web: <http://www.fav.it/home>

The Aldini Valeriani Foundation is the School of Industrial Management of Confindustria Emilia Area Centro in Bologna. It is committed to creating economic value on our territory through the provision of innovative services, aimed at increasing the competitiveness of companies, developing the skills of people. This Foundation integrates technical culture with managerial culture. It offers a rich, innovative, articulated and customizable training offer. It takes care of the competitive thinking of customers. The Aldini Valeriani Foundation is also a consultancy: a group of professionals with solid experience in consulting and business training. This activity offers specific tools to enhance and govern the processes of change and creation of value according to a logic of sustainable growth. The constant attention in listening to the customer's needs also translates into high professional training.